Game 3

Lassiter @ Heritage-Conyers

Saturday, March 6, 2010

Lassiter 9, Heritage 7

Lassiter made a long early season road trip on Saturday afternoon, and the visitors used a couple big innings to defeat the Heritage Patriots. The Trojans were led offensively by All-American Brandon Stephens who added a second homerun to his season totals to go along with a double, two singles, and three RBIs. Nelson Ward complemented Stephens' hot bat going three for five with two RBIs. Shortstop, Chris Fusco, proved to be the difference with a clutch two-run game winning single in the seventh and a stellar play on a bad hop grounder in the bottom half of the frame. Three pitchers saw action for the Trojans starting with Stephens, who was strong in the first two innings with good command and three strikeouts. Stephen Janas followed him on the mound before giving way to the eventual game winner Parker Shank. Shank was solid in relief again pitching the last two innings giving up only one unearned run and striking out three to pick up his first career varsity win. The Trojans stay on the road next week with three games starting with the short drive down Sandy Plains Road to take on their longtime rival, Sprayberry Yellow Jackets, Monday afternoon at 5:55.
